

Forms of Economic Activity

Type of Business	Type of Labour	Type of Market
Capitalist Enterprises (e.g. small, medium and large businesses)	Paid Labour	Market Transactions	The Visible Economy
Alternative Capitalist Enterprises (e.g. alternative businesses motivated by an environmental ethic)	Alternative Paid Labour (e.g. Work for the Dole, training schemes)	Alternative Market Transaction (e.g. thrift shops, Local Exchange and Trading Systems)
Non-Capitalist Enterprises (e.g. self-employed people, not for profit organisations, cooperatives)	Unpaid Labour (e.g. housework, gardening, helping out friends or family)	Non-Market Transaction (e.g. exchanges with neighbours, friends or family)	The Hidden Economy

Source: Cameron, Jenny & Gibson, Katherine, 2001, Regional communities reinvent economy, in Dibden, J; Fletcher, M.; and Cocklin C. (eds) All Change!: Gippsland Perspectives on Regional Australia in Transition, Monash Publications in Geography and Environmental Science, Melbourne (forthcoming).

